JANUARY

“Man has emerged from the shadows of antiquity with a Peregrine on his wrist. Its dispassionate brown eyes, more than those of any other bird, have been witness to the struggle for civilisation, from the squalid tents on the steppes of Asia thousands of years ago, to the marbled halls of European kings in the seventeenth century.” Birds Over America – Rodger Tory Peterson

APRIL

"Falconry is not a hobby or an amusement: it is a rage. You eat it and drink it, sleep it and think it. You tremble to write of it, even in recollection. It is, as King James the First remarked, an extreme stirrer-up of passions." The Godstone and the Blackymor – TH White

JULY

"For the hawk's part, she doesn't care how you look, how you vote, what books you read or language you speak or how you spend your time away from her. A hawk cares how you behave in her presence, and that behavior must be humble, consistent, thoughtful, measured, transparent, purposeful, and both immediately and ultimately beneficent: in a word, virtuous." Four Falconry Fundamentals - Matthew Mullenix
